Clinical Coach Congress Programme - Morning

8.30am - 9am	Virtual Registration
9am- 9.05am	Chairman's Welcome - Karen Davidson, Vice Principal Quality, The College of Animal Welfare
9.05am - 9.50am	The Importance of Staying Standardised Wendy Cummins MCFBA MAPDT 01414 NCertAn(beh)DipAVN(Surgical)DipAVN(Medical)RVN, Donaldsons Vets Veterinary medicine changes daily, so we have to stay on top of all the changes. Standardising training means that we can produce qualified veterinary nurses that can work in any veterinary practice, be it first opinion or referral. Being a clinical coach means that you have to be up to date with everything new and puts you in a valuable position to take this information back to your practice, so not only are you training gold standard nurses but you are keeping the whole practice up to date with the current standards of Veterinary Medicine.
9.50am - 10.35am	The Veterinary Professions Role in Safeguarding Barbara Cooper CertEd LicIPD DTM Hon AssocRCVS RVN, The College of Animal Welfare The impact of COVID-19 has created significant challenges for the profession despite falling infection rates and the relaxation of the current restrictions. This is likely to continue for some time. The responsibility placed on all of us to promote wellbeing in the workplace whilst meeting the six principles of safeguarding are significant. The core principles are the standards found in the Care Act 2014 which include: Empowerment, Prevention, Proportionality, Protection, Partnership, Accountability. Initially the framework was established for vulnerable adults however the principles apply to individuals of all ages and in all workplaces. Factors affecting fitness to practise and the different management approach to be taken when dealing with factors affecting fitness for practice will be explored.
10.35am - 10.50am	Live Q&A Panel Present questions (anonymously if desired) to the speakers
10.50am - 11.20am	Morning Break and Online Exhibition
11.20am - 12.05pm	'Tame Your Brain' – Solve 'people problems' before they start Dr Libby Kemkaran Thompson, MA VetMB MRCVS, Kemkaran Consulting Ltd 'You got people, you got problems'. But does it have to be that way? Learn the 5 pillars of people wrangling that work with the 4 different Big-Cat brain types. Build harmonious working relationships and unlock the blue-print that is the operating instructions for your brain! Understanding 'how to speak to people who are not like you' leads you to enable a better quality of conversation, and fosters healthy and honest interactions within your practice team. This leads to increased learning and better outcomes for your trainees.
12.05pm - 12.50pm	Time Management - Creating systems that work for you Paul Ward, Black Top Coaching There are many ways, systems and apps that can help you become more efficient. But what works for you? During this talk you will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consider what motivates you to get stuff done • Start with the end in mind • Understand your map of the world in order to positively influence those you work with
12.50pm - 1.05pm	Live Q&A Panel Present questions (anonymously if desired) to the speakers
1.05pm - 1.35pm	Lunch Break and Online Exhibition

'Providing innovative learning opportunities in pursuit of professional excellence'

Clinical Coach Congress Programme - Afternoon

1.35pm - 2.20pm	Common Anaesthetic Drugs & their Effects Michelle Moran RVN CertECC VTS Anaesthesia & Analgesia, Northwest Veterinary Specialists This presentation will cover the following key learning points: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Look at the most common anaesthesia drugs we use and why they are chosen for an anaesthetic protocol• Understand how the drugs work and what situations we may choose to use to use them or avoid them• Learn the most common effects of the drugs and how we monitor for these in practice• Feel more confident about understanding the drugs and their effects
2.20pm - 3.05pm	The Not So “Deep” End; supporting the SVN through their first anaesthesia Courtney Scales DipVN, NCert(Anaesth), RVN, Veterinary Anaesthesia For many SVNs, understanding and monitoring anaesthesia is a daunting part of their training and NPL. A lot of fear comes from the unknown and worst case scenarios; in this presentation we look at the ways to structure, support and empower your SVN as a Clinical Coach through the entire anaesthesia process.
3.05pm - 3.20pm	Live Q&A Panel Present questions (anonymously if desired) to the speakers
3.20pm - 3.50pm	Afternoon Break and Online Exhibition
3.50pm - 4.35pm	Creating Simple Simulations to Support Students in Practice (with demonstrations) Catherine Rolfe Grad Dip VN RVN AFHEA, Dick White Academy This session will discuss how as clinical coaches you can help to bridge the gap between your students ‘knowing how’ to do a procedure and ‘doing’ that procedure with a patient, by first getting them to ‘show you how’ on low-fidelity models which you can make in practice. A range of opportunities for the use of simulations for skills covered by the NPL will be explored and by the end of the session you will be able to create a simple model for students to practice IV catheterization and blood sampling.
4.35pm - 4.45pm	Live Q&A Panel Present questions (anonymously if desired) to the speakers
4.45pm - 5pm	Chairman’s Close - Karen Davidson, Vice Principal Quality, The College of Animal Welfare
