

How to Find Work Experience or Employment in a Veterinary Practice

The College of Animal Welfare

Tips & Advice

Attend relevant open evenings and careers events

Keep your CV up-to-date

Check the websites of veterinary organisations

Look at volunteering opportunities abroad

Follow veterinary practices and colleges on social media to be the first to see jobs posted

Contact local veterinary practices directly to enquire about work opportunities

Check online jobs boards such as the CAW Jobs Board and Indeed

Gain veterinary work experience elsewhere

Any experience you can gain working with animals will help to increase the chances of you securing a placement in a veterinary practice in the future. For example, you could volunteer in a kennels or rehoming centre.

Interested in a career as a veterinary nurse?

Find out more about your training options at: www.caw.ac.uk/vn

