

Why is dog grooming important?

Dog Grooming plays an important role in the health and welfare of dogs:

Boosts your dog's sociability

Grooming helps your dog get used to being handled. This can make socialising and vet visits easier.

Increases happiness and wellbeing

Grooming keeps your dog clean, comfortable and feeling their best.

Prevents pain and discomfort

Regular grooming reduces the risk of infections and can help prevent problems like matting and overgrown nails.

